

It would greatly appreciated to leave our no call list as it is. I very much dislike all those phone calls about garbage that I have no interest in. We should be allowed to keep our numbers away from anyone we wish. I pay for my number and should have control on who has access to it.